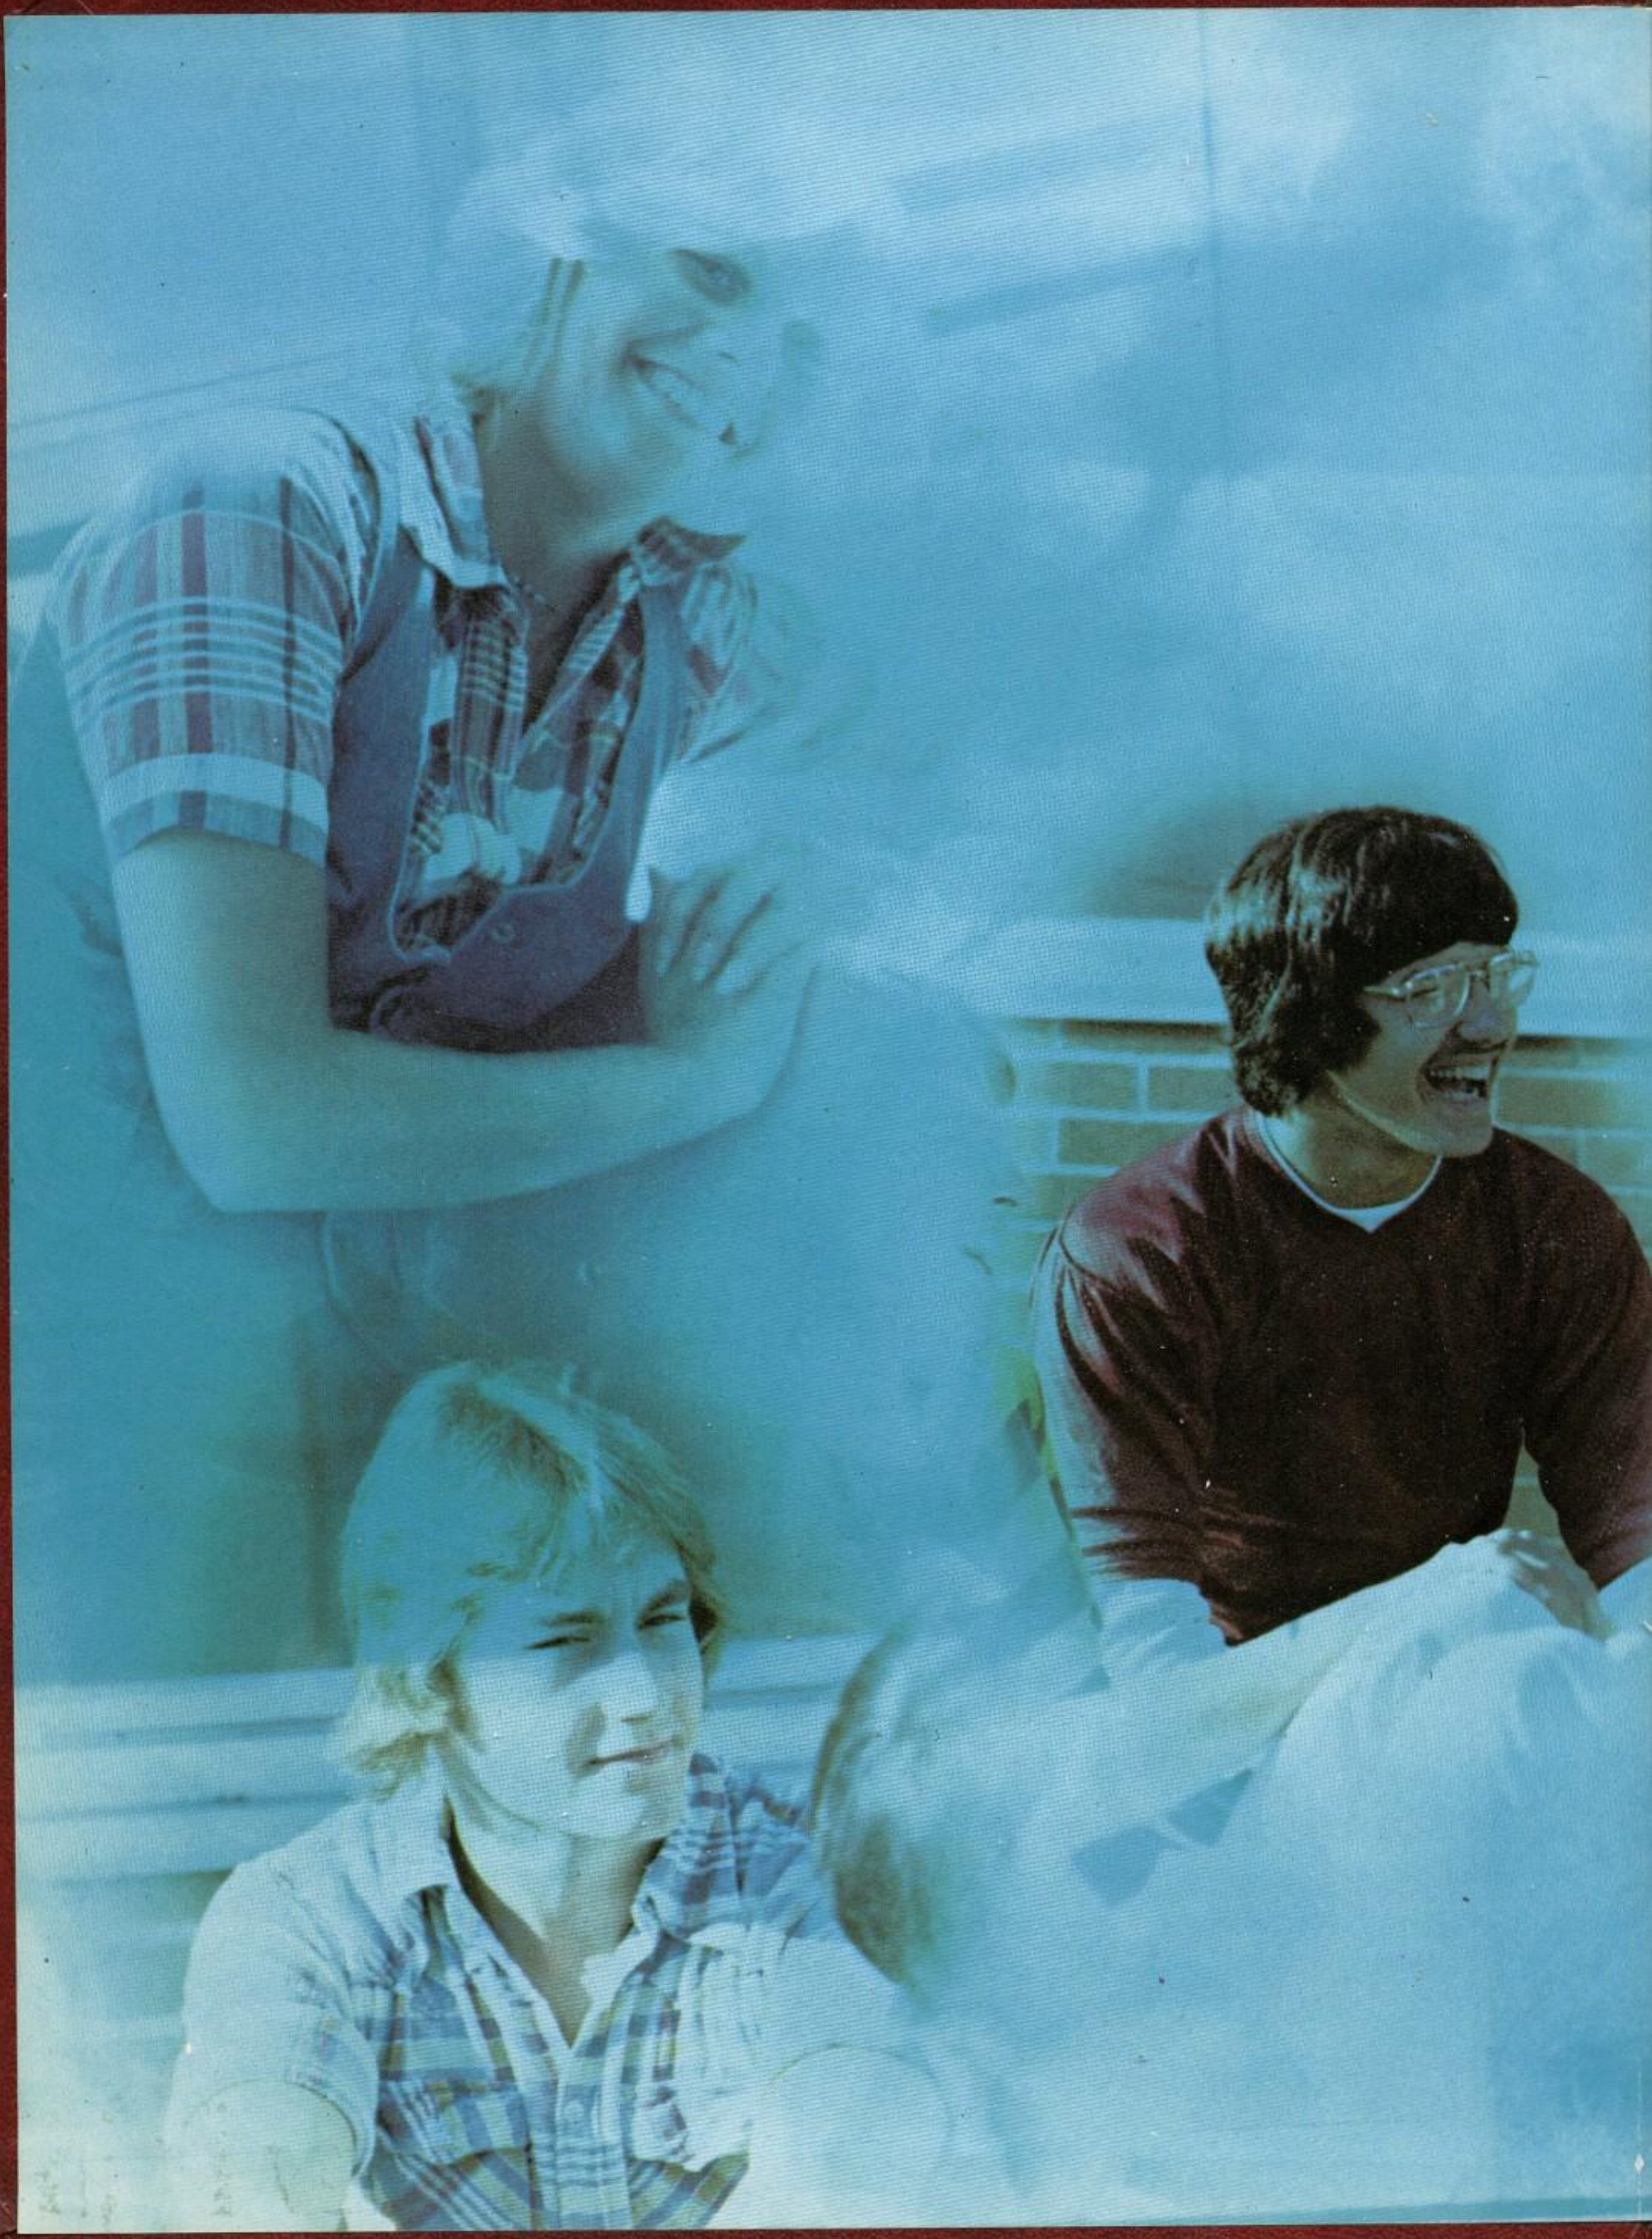
Class of 78



Many faces paint a picture
With shades of life fixed in time,
And our hearts and thoughts together
Write a poem of reason and rhyme.
Our friends become our teachers,
Our teachers become our friends,
We find a warmth we keep until the end.
May our happiness continue
And success' limit be the sky.
For this we thank friend and teacher
Lakeland High.

Sweet smiles and open minds
Can make the darkest day brighter,
And the hope that new friends bring
Can make the load a little lighter.

There's a mirror in our mind
That helps us see the times
We hoped would never end.

Administration and Staff

People who aid in the growth and guidance of other people must remain aware that despite one's learnedness, there will always exist room for more growth at all levels of understanding.
"Man's mind stretched to a new idea never goes back to its original dimensions."

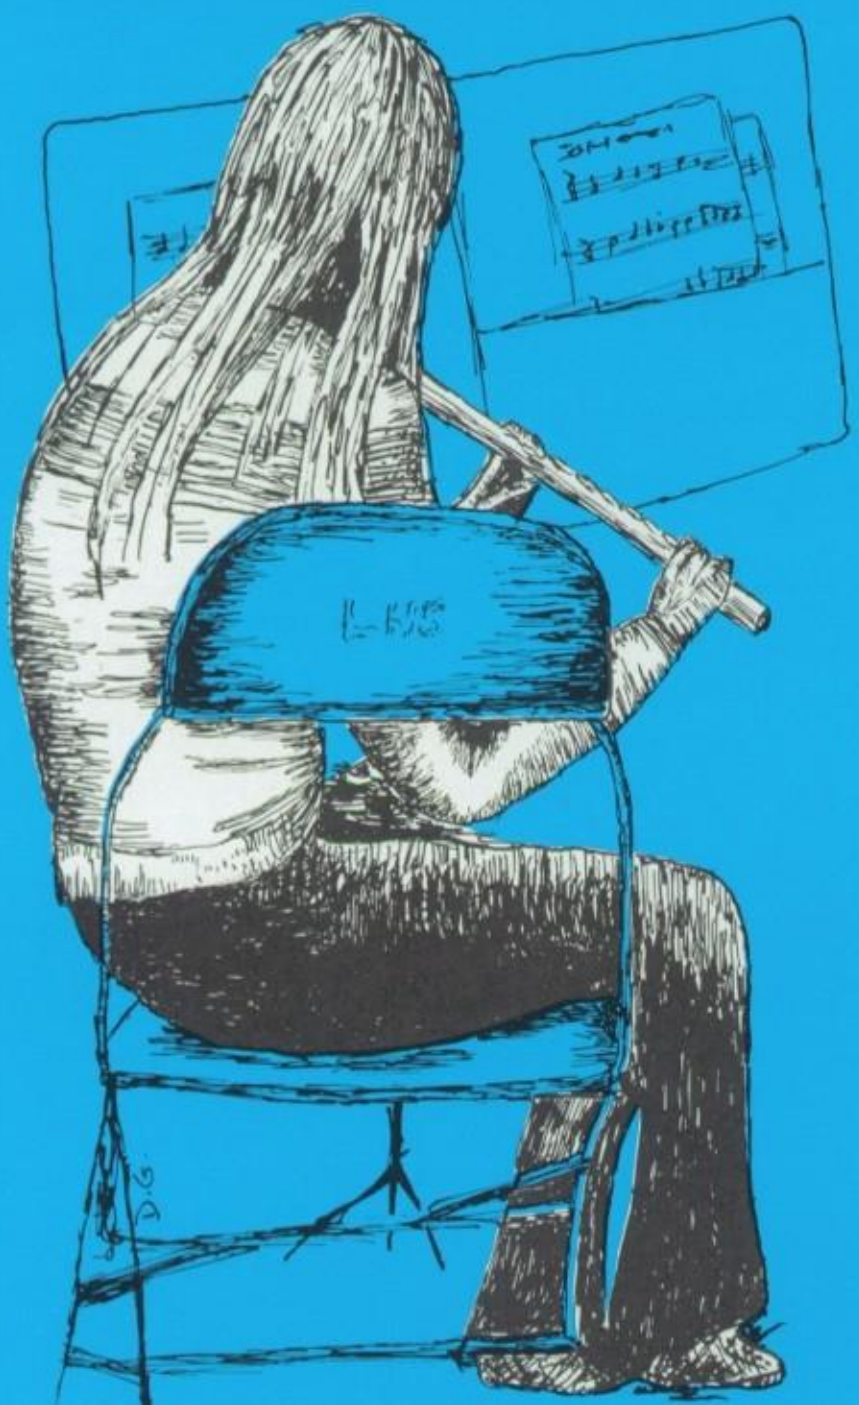
Activities



Our choices and preferences are reflections of ourselves — mind and soul.
"If a man does not keep pace with his companions perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."
Thoreau

Goose

Mrs. Pinto, sorry Mom
I don't know what to say I'm so beat from cutting the [redacted] lawn.
I have never written to a teacher before so what can I say I've been good knowing the family and I will miss all of you next year. But I will see you in the summer Well I am wasting time so I am going to start Cutting again.

Seeking perfection and trying to be the best that we can be — these are our motivations. We see a part of ourselves in the results of our efforts, be it the classic thrill of victory or agony of defeat.

It matters not that for some it is the beginning while for others it is half over.
The time remaining will only be as fruitful as each individual makes it. Only when he truly gives of himself in life can the results be favorable reflections of himself.

"You may look in front of you, and on both sides, if you like, but you can't look all around you — unless you've got eyes at the back of your head."

Faces show the times we've had —
All the things we've done They reflect the years gone by and those still yet to come.

Hopes and sorrows, tears and joys,
emotions are unfurled,
Common to each single man,
— a reflection on the world.
